MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR:

This memorandum is for information only.

1. Georgetown University's Director of Public Relations, J. V. FitzGerald, requests advance copies of your speech, scheduled for 8:30 P.M., Wednesday, (23 March). I told him you had not written your speech and I am not sure that you will have a prepared text, but if you so decide, we will get copies to him at least just before you speak.

2. Martin Lu, Chairman of the Edward A. Walsh Lecture Committee, says it is hoped Mrs. Dulles will accompany you and listen to your talk and the question and answer period to follow. (He later informed Mrs. Dulles about the city)

3. Lu says you are expected to arrive at The Hall of Nations, 36th and N streets, N.W., at 8:15 o'clock. You will be met by the Regent, the Rev. Father Frank L. Fadner (he's from Wisconsin) and Mr. Lu. The capacity of the Hall is 400. There are about 1,200 students in the Foreign Service School (boarders, part time, night etc).

4. You will be introduced by Richard Daly (of near Dayton, Ohio), President of the Student Council.

5. There will be a brief period of questions and answers following your talk.

6. The Press has been invited to attend.

7. General Cabell has a son, Ben, on the staff of the Georgetown student paper. He has been furnished, thru his father's office, a glossy print of you, and a biography.

8. Two parking spaces, in front of the Hall of Nations, will be reserved for your use.
